Section 3. Junior Membership. Junior membership shall constitute a separate membership class. Junior membership is open to anyone who hasn't reached his/her 22nd Birthday on January 1st of the current membership year. Junior members shall have no voting rights. Upon receipt of any such notice, the membership of such member shall terminate; provided, however, that after a complaint has been initiated against a member, the right of such member to withdraw from membership shall be suspended until the termination of all proceedings in connection with such complaint, unless the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors otherwise approves.

Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act, except in those specific instances in which a larger vote is required by law or by these Bylaws.

Except as limited by law and the members, the Board of Directors shall have and is vested with the power and authority to do, or cause to be done, any and all things for and on behalf of the Association, to exercise or cause to be exercised any and all of its powers, privileges or franchises and to seek the effectuation of its purposes and objectives.

Nothing contained herein shall preclude a member of the Board of Directors from succeeding himself or herself, except that no person shall consecutively serve more than two three-year terms. Following service of two consecutive three-year terms, a member would again be eligible for election to the Board of Directors at the first election following the end of the most recent term served by that former Director. Not more than two Directors residing in any one state may serve on the Board at any one time and all Directors must reside in the district which they represent.

Section 4. Election of Directors. The secretary of the USSA will inform, by mail, all voting members of the election results.

Section 5. Commencement of Term of Office. Newly elected Directors shall commence their term of office immediately following the adjournment of the last regular meeting of the Board of Directors, preceding the Annual Meeting of members.

In the event of a vacancy and a full-term board seat both being available in the same district, members will vote for two (2) candidates. The two candidates receiving the most votes will fill the Board of Directors vacancies in the following manner. The person with the most votes will fill the three-year term and the person with the second most votes will fill the shorter term. Filling an uncompleted term will not preclude a Director from being elected to the Board of Directors for two consecutive three-year terms.

Any such consent signed by all of the Directors shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote and may be stated as such in any document describing the action taken by the Board of Directors.

Section 13. Waiver of Notice. Any notice provided or required to be given to the Directors may be waived in writing by any of them, whether before, at, or after the times stated therein. The attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting except where the Director attends and so states at the opening of the meeting, for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 14. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the whole Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law or by these Bylaws or by Articles of Incorporation shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

The Director(s) must be provided an opportunity to respond to any accusations. The meeting will be in that Director's district.
